

THE NAVY'S SEAPORT NEXT GENERATION (SEAPORT NXG)

An efficient and effective means of contracting competitively for engineering, technical, and other professional support services

We are qualified to perform engineering and technical support in the areas of:

- Water production, distribution, and wastewater collection and treatment
- Industrial control systems
- Cybersecurity of industrial control systems
- Stormwater planning and management
- Geospatial, mapping, and surveying
- Transportation infrastructure
- Infrastructure condition assessment
- Land development
- Site/civil engineering

Contracting Organization:

SeaPort Next Generation
(SeaPort NxG)

Contract Holder:

Dewberry Engineers Inc.

NAICS Code:

541330 - Engineering Services

Contract Number:

N00178-21-D-9041

Contract Value:

$2.5B

Set Aside:

Unrestricted

Contract Term:

07/14/2021 - 01/01/2029
With the potential for an option with a five-year ordering period.

This contract can be used by U.S. Department of Navy agencies including:

- Naval Information Warfare Systems Command (NAVWAR)
- Naval Sea Systems Command (NAVSEA)
- Naval Air Systems Command (NAVAIR)
- Naval Facilities Systems Command (NAVFAC)
- Naval Supply Systems Command (NAVSUP)
- Office of Naval Research (ONR)
- Military Sealift Command (MSC)
- United States Marine Corps (USMC)

All task orders are competitively solicited in the SeaPort System. There is no direct ordering or sole source.

*Task Orders placed under this IDIQ may require a facility clearance or personnel to maintain personal clearances.

Michael Jarosz, PE
Associate Vice President, Navy Client Manager
mjarosz@dewberry.com
757.355.5815

in @ y
www.dewberry.com

